Taos Ski Valley Fundraises for Taos Community Initiatives with 2019 Night of Philanthropy

Event packed with fun, music and food will raise money for the Taos Community Foundation

TAOS, NM – September 13, 2019 – This September 20, Taos Ski Valley will once again host A Night of Philanthropy, an opportunity for Northern New Mexicans to come together as a community to support the charitable organizations that sustain the region. The event will feature hand-crafted small plates, a variety of beer and wine, and the soulful music of Jackson Price and the Blues Rockets rising up through the golden aspens of the valley. A Night of Philanthropy will take place from 5-7 PM, September 20, in the Taos Ski Valley Plaza.

All money raised from A Night of Philanthropy will benefit the Taos Community Foundation, which connects people and opportunities, generating resources to build a more creative, caring and thriving community. During the event, representatives from the Taos Community Foundation and Taos Ski Valley will briefly present on the initiatives of the Taos Community Foundation and how events like this help non-profit organizations throughout the region.

All are welcome to join this important event; including but not limited to, New Mexico residents, employees of Taos Ski Valley and local businesses. A $10 donation is suggested, which will provide two $5 food tokens. Attendees may enjoy spending a night at The Blake following the event. All proceeds from the night of September 20th will also be donated to the Taos Community Foundation.

“We are honored and thrilled to host the Night of Philanthropy in support of the Taos Community Foundation,” said Dawn Boulware, Chief Administrative Officer at Taos Ski Valley. “As a certified B Corporation, giving back to our community is core to our beliefs and business ethos. Our partnership with the Taos Community Foundation is central to our community giving. They do incredible work supporting individual nonprofits and community projects to enrich the lives and opportunities of citizens and to protect the environment that sustains us. We invite anyone to join us in this effort and to enjoy a beautiful fall evening in the mountains!”

Last year, Taos Ski Valley's Night of Philanthropy event raised more than $10,000 for the Taos Community Foundation.
