Women's Art & Culture Getaway – Two Day

Two Days of Regional Art & Culture

Special Women's Oriented Regional Cultural Exploration

To get the full women's getaway experience, make The Blake your basecamp and let Heritage Inspirations whisk you away for two days of art and culture.

Day 1

8:30 AM

Journey from Taos to Abiquiu for a Georgia O'Keeffe House Tour

A women's exploration of New Mexico would not be complete without visiting the iconic "Mother of American Modernism's" home turf. Her 1945 Spanish Colonial era compound, overlooking the Chama River Valley, was her great muse and where she created many of her most memorable paintings.

11:45 AM

Take in the Sites and Smells of Lavender

Tour the Lavender Farm, learn about the many varieties and uses of this fragrant drought tolerant plant, and even get a taste of lavender lemonade.

12:30 PM

Abiquiu Artist Visit and Studio Tour

Explore the studio home of Debra Fritts and Frank Shelton, where you'll not only get to visit with the artists in their creative setting but enjoy a gourmet lunch in their warm and welcoming space.

2:30 PM

Travel back to Taos

With a refreshed spirit and tranquil artistic vibe, travel through the tiny village of El Rito. Rich with juniper, piñon, cane cholla and cedar, you'll see why the beauty of this area has inspired and stimulated artistic passions as well as film movie backdrops.

Day 2

9:00 AM

Travel Along the "High Road" to the Mountainous Villages Many Artists Call Home

The “High Road” goes through the Sangre de Cristo mountain range where many of the timeless villages house artists’ studios. These artists have secreted themselves away in quiet inspirational mountain splendor and this tour will stop at Las Trampas, Ojo Sarco, and Truchas in order to visit their studios and see their work.

1:00 PM

Enjoy a Deliciously Paired Wine and Gourmet Picnic Lunch

Stop at Vivac Winery, at the quaint town of Dixon, for a gourmet lunch paired with 100% New Mexican grown grape vineyard wine.

3:00 PM

Travel back to Taos through the scenic Rio Grande Corridor.

The “low road” parallels the Rio Grande River and twists up and around to the final bend of road 68, where you hit the expansive majestic Taos Plateau and the great Rio Grande Gorge view.

Women’s Outdoor Adventures – Two Day

Two Days of Outdoor Adventures

Special Women’s Only Outdoor Fun

To traverse and explore the gorgeous Taos environment, make The Blake your basecamp and let Heritage Inspirations show you the amazing outdoor diversity of this region.

Day 1

8:30 AM

Journey from Taos to Ghost Ranch for a Stunning Three-Mile Hike

Journey to the edge of the Colorado Plateau and into the magnificent colorfully ribboned sandstone cliffs of Ghost Ranch. Here, you’ll learn about the geology of this sculpted textured land as you hike Chimney Rock, a towering monolith that provides commanding 360-degree views.

12:00 PM

Enjoy a Picnic Lunch at Vivac Winery

Stop at Vivac Winery, at the quaint town of Dixon, for a gourmet lunch paired with 100% New Mexican grown grape vineyard wine.

2:00 PM

Travel back to Taos

With fresh tan marks and a refreshed spirit, travel through the tiny village of El Rito Valley. Rich with juniper, piñon, cane cholla and cedar, you'll see why the beauty of this area has inspired and stimulated artistic passions as well as film movie backdrops.

Day 2

9:00 AM

Take a Morning Hike Along the Rio Grande Del Norte National Monument's Rim

Hike along the 2 ½ mile, 6,400-foot rim drop of the Rio Grande Gorge. Offering breathtaking scenery and spectacular panoramic views, you'll see the plunging steep rustic canyon walls from atop before you delve deep into the Rio Grande Gorge's center.

12:00 PM

Enjoy a Picnic Lunch on the Banks of the Rio Grande

Eat an early lunch at the water's edge, getting nourished up for your adrenaline rushed water voyage to come.

1:00PM

Go into the Belly of the Rio Grande Gorge for an Adrenaline Rushed Racecourse Raft

River Adventure Guides will prepare you for your whitewater river journey. This class 2-3 rapid section of the Rio Grande suits both first timers or whitewater enthusiasts and is perfect for outdoor thrill-seeking types.

3:00 PM

Wind Down the Day with a Wine Tasting

Stop at Vivac Winery, at the quaint town of Dixon, for a taste of 100% New Mexican grown grape vineyard wines.
